

General Terms and Conditions of Delivery and Service of VeRotool Technik GmbH

1. Scope / Differing terms and conditions of the customer
 - 1.1 Our General Terms and Conditions of Delivery and Service (hereinafter referred to as “General Terms and Conditions”) apply exclusively to companies within the meaning of Section 14 BGB [German Civil Code] (hereinafter referred to as “customer”) i.e. natural persons or legal entities that are performing their commercial or independent professional activities when concluding a legal transaction.
 - 1.2 These General Terms and Conditions, in particular for deliveries and services shall apply exclusively to our business relations with our customers, also with respect to information and advice. Where our General Terms and Conditions are implemented in business with a customer, they shall also apply to all further business relations between the customer and ourselves unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing. Differing terms and conditions of the customer are expressly rejected. They shall only apply if and to the extent expressly acknowledged by us in writing. Our silence regarding such differing general terms and conditions shall not be deemed in particular to be acknowledgement or consent, and this shall also apply to future contracts.
 - 1.3 Our General Terms and Conditions shall apply in place of any general terms and conditions of the customer, also where such general terms and conditions stipulate that acceptance of an order is deemed to be the unconditional acknowledgement of the general terms and conditions, or where we deliver, after the customer has indicated the validity of its general terms and conditions, unless we have expressly waived the validity of our General Terms and Conditions in writing. By accepting our order confirmation, the customer expressly acknowledges that it waives its legal objection derived from the general terms and conditions.
 - 1.4 If general contracts have been concluded by the parties, these shall take precedence. They shall be supplemented by these General Terms and Conditions unless more specific provisions are agreed.
2. Information / Properties of the products
 - 2.1 Information and explanations regarding our products shall be provided solely on the basis of our experience to date.
 - 2.2 Reference to standards, similar technical regulations and technical information, descriptions and illustrations of the delivery item in quotations and brochures and in our advertising shall only represent information about a property of our products if we have expressly declared the quality to be a “property of the product”. These are otherwise non-binding, general specifications of performance.
 - 2.3 We shall only be deemed to have given a guarantee if we have designated a property and/or the outcome of performance in writing as “guaranteed by law”.
 - 2.4 We shall assume no liability that our products can be used for the customer’s intended purpose other than liability prescribed by law unless we have agreed otherwise in writing with the customer.
 - 2.5 We shall retain title and copyrights to illustrations, drawings, indications of weight and dimension, performance and other property specifications, estimates of cost and other documents about our products and services. The customer undertakes not to make the documents specified in the foregoing sentence accessible to third parties unless we give our express written consent.
3. Drawings / Samples
 - 3.1 Properties of our drawings and/or samples shall only become an integral part of the contract if expressly agreed in writing. We shall retain title to our drawings and/or samples and they may not be exploited nor made accessible to third parties without our written consent.
 - 3.2 If agreed, we shall make samples of the ordered products available to the customer prior to manufacturing all the products. We shall only subsequently manufacture all the ordered products after inspection and confirmation by the customer.
 - 3.3 The customer shall not have the right to exploit and pass on our drawings and samples. We shall retain title to our drawings and samples unless a purchase was expressly agreed, and they may be neither exploited nor made accessible to third parties without our written consent. All copyrights, IP-rights or other rights to the drawings and samples shall remain with the holders of the rights despite them being provided to the customer.
4. Conclusion of contracts / Scope of delivery / Procurement risk / Guarantee / Acceptance
 - 4.1 Our quotations are subject to change unless they are expressly designated as binding or contain binding commitments. They are only requests to customers for orders. A contract shall be created, also in day-to-day business, only when we confirm the customer’s order in writing or text form (i.e. also by telefax or email). Where delivery is made immediately, our confirmation can be replaced by our invoice.
 - 4.2 Our order confirmation shall be binding for the subject matter of the delivery contract.
 - 4.3 All agreements, collateral agreements, warranties and amendments of contracts shall only be valid when given in writing. This shall also apply to any waiver of the written form itself. Verbal amendments or modifications of contracts shall be invalid. This shall not affect the precedence of an individual agreement (Section 305 b BGB).
 - 4.4 In the event of call orders or delays in acceptance caused by the customer, we shall have the right to procure the material for the complete order and to manufacture the entire order quantity immediately. After the order is placed, any change requests by the customer can, therefore, no longer be considered unless this has been expressly agreed in writing.
 - 4.5 The customer shall notify us in writing and in due time prior to conclusion of the contract of any special requirements of our products.
 - 4.6 We shall only be obliged to deliver from our own product stock.
 - 4.7 Assumption of a procurement risk is not based solely on our obligation to deliver an item which is defined solely by its class. We shall only assume a procurement risk by virtue of a separate written agreement stating “we assume the procurement risk...”.

- 4.8 If shipment is delayed at the customer’s request or for reasons for which the customer is responsible, we shall have the right to store the products, beginning on expiry of the period set in the written notice that the products are ready for shipment, and to invoice the costs incurred for this at 0.5% of the net invoice amount of the stored products for each full month or part thereof. This shall not affect the assertion of further rights. The customer shall have the right to prove that no costs or considerably lower costs were incurred.

Furthermore, we shall have the right, after the period expires, to dispose of the contractual products otherwise, and to deliver to the customer again after a reasonable period.

5. Delivery / Delivery time / Default in delivery

- 5.1 Binding delivery and performance dates and delivery and performance periods must be agreed expressly and in writing as binding. We shall make our best efforts to meet delivery dates and delivery periods that are not binding or approximate (approx., about etc.).

- 5.2 A commercial transaction for delivery by a fixed date shall only exist if we have expressly confirmed such transaction in writing or the legal requirements for a commercial transaction for delivery by a fixed date exist. The unilateral designation of a delivery as a commercial transaction for delivery by a fixed date by the customer alone shall not be sufficient for this.

- 5.3 Delivery and/or service periods shall begin with the customer's receipt of our order confirmation but not before all details about the execution of the order have been clarified and all other requirements to be fulfilled by the customer are met, in particular advance payments or securities agreed are made or provided in full. This shall apply to delivery dates and/or service dates. If the customer requests changes after placing the order, a new, reasonable delivery and/or service period shall begin upon our confirmation of the change.

- 5.4 The customer's interest in our delivery or performance shall only lapse, in the absence of other written agreement, if we fail to deliver material parts or deliver with delay.

- 5.5 If we default in delivery or performance, the customer must first set us a reasonable extension period for delivery or performance of at least 14 days, unless this is unreasonable in a specific case. If this elapses without result, damage claims for breach of duty, for whatever reason, shall exist only in accordance with the provisions of clauses 5.7 and 12.

- 5.6 We shall not be in default as long as the customer is in default in fulfilling obligations towards us; this shall also include obligations under other contracts.

- 5.7 If the customer incurs damage as a result of our default, the customer shall have the right, to the exclusion of further claims, to request compensation for default. It shall amount, for each full week of delay, to 0.5% but as a whole to not more than 5% of the net price for that part of the total delivery which, as a result of the default, cannot be used in due time or according to the contract. No further compensation shall be due from us for damage as a result of delay. This shall not apply in the case of an intentional or fraudulent act by us, in the case of damages due to injury to life, limb or health, and in the case of default where a commercial transaction for delivery by a fixed date has been agreed within the meaning of the law (see clause 5.2).

6. Delivery subject to own receipt of delivery / Force majeure and other obstructions

- 6.1 If, through no fault of our own, we do not receive deliveries or services from our suppliers to provide the delivery due from us under the contract, despite due and adequate stocking prior to conclusion of the contract with the customer, or they are incorrect or not in due time, or events of force majeure occur, we shall notify our customer in writing or text form in due time. In such case, we shall have the right to postpone the delivery for the duration of the obstruction, or to rescind the contract in whole or in part for that part of the contract not yet fulfilled if we have met our foregoing duty to provide information and have not assumed a procurement risk. Events of force majeure are strikes, lock-outs, official intervention, epidemics or pandemics, energy shortages and shortages of raw materials, transport bottlenecks through no fault of our own, company obstructions through no fault of our own, e.g. due to fire, water and damage to machinery, and any other obstructions which, when considered objectively, were not caused by our negligence.

- 6.2 If a delivery or performance date or delivery or performance period is agreed with binding force and the agreed delivery date or the agreed delivery or performance period is exceeded due to events according to clause 6.1., the customer shall have the right, after a reasonable extension period has elapsed without result, to rescind the contract for that part not yet fulfilled, if the customer cannot be objectively expected to adhere further to the contract. The customer shall have no further claims, especially claims for damages, in that case.

- 6.3 The above provision pursuant to clause 6.2 shall apply accordingly if a customary delivery period was exceeded for the reasons stated in clause 6.1, also if no fixed delivery date was contractually agreed.

7. Shipment / INCOTERMS / passing of risk / packaging

- 7.1 Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we shall ship products uninsured at the risk and expense of the customer and ex works our respective locations in Ratingen or Laasdorf (INCOTERM EXW).

- 7.2 If our order confirmation includes a clause stipulated in the INCOTERMS, the INCOTERMS as last amended shall apply to the respective clause unless otherwise stated in our order confirmation.

- 7.3 We reserve the right to choose the route and means of transport. We shall, however, endeavour to take the customer's wishes into account with respect to the route and type of shipment. Any additional expenses as a result, also where delivery freight paid is agreed, shall be borne by the customer.

- 7.4 If shipment is delayed at the customer's request or through the customer's fault, we shall store the products at the customer's expense and risk (see clause 4.8). In this case, notice that the products are ready for shipment shall be deemed equivalent to shipment.

- 7.5 The risk of accidental loss or accidental deterioration shall pass to the customer when the products to be delivered are handed over to the customer, forwarding agent, freight car-

- rier or firms otherwise entrusted with shipment of the products but at the latest when the products leave our respective locations in Ratingen or Laasdorf.
- 7.6 If delivery is delayed because we assert our right of retention due to the customer's default in payment in whole or in part or due to another reason for which the customer is responsible, the risk shall pass to the customer at the latest as of the date on which the notice is sent stating that the products are ready for shipment.
- 7.7 Where the customer or third parties determined by the customer take over the products, times/dates for taking over the products must be agreed with us in due time.
- 7.8 If there is a statutory obligation to take back transport packaging and the customer requests us to take back transport packaging, the customer undertakes to have returns processed free domicile or arrange for the returns.
- 8. Service provisions for repair / regeneration and/or production according to customer specifications
- 8.1 If contractually agreed, we also undertake as services the manufacture, regeneration, and the repair, conversion and/or modification of construction machinery attachments, demolition tools and other machine parts according to the customer's specifications.
- 8.2 We are entitled to have these services or parts of the services performed by third parties.
- 8.3 The customer shall, without being requested to do so and free of charge and in a timely manner, (i) perform all necessary acts of cooperation from its sphere and (ii) provide us with the necessary information and documents (e.g. drawings/specifications/sample parts) completely and accurately so that we can perform the services owed to it in accordance with the contract.
- 8.4 In the case of production according to the customer's specifications or samples, the customer shall be responsible for ensuring that the products do not infringe industrial property rights or other rights of third parties. Otherwise, the customer shall indemnify us against claims of third parties. If we are prohibited from delivering or manufacturing by a third party with reference to an industrial property right belonging to him, we shall be entitled - without checking the legal situation, but after informing the customer - to stop work and demand reimbursement of the costs incurred, unless the customer proves in a legally binding manner that the assertion of the industrial property rights by a third party is unjustified.
- 8.5 Performance periods shall not commence until all details of the performance of the services have been clarified and all other conditions to be fulfilled by the customer have been met, in particular agreed advance payments or securities have been paid in full. They shall be extended appropriately if the originally agreed scope of services is subsequently increased.
- 8.6 Parts removed for repair will only be returned or shipped back to the customer if the customer has expressly stated in writing when placing the order that he wishes to receive these parts. In this case, the customer shall bear the costs and risk of any return shipment.
- 8.7 If we have agreed acceptance with the customer for the manufacture, regeneration and repair, conversion and/or modification of construction machinery attachments, demolition tools and other machine parts according to the customer's specifications within the scope of the offer, these products and/or services shall be accepted by the customer without delay after notification of readiness for acceptance and available acceptance capability. Insignificant defects in the products and/or services which do not prevent acceptance shall be recorded in an acceptance report and shall be remedied by us within the period specified in the report.
- 8.8 In the event of any defects, the customer's claims shall be governed by clauses 9 and 12 of these GTC.
- 9. Notice of defects / Breach of duty / Warranty
- 9.1 The customer shall give us notice of recognisable material defects immediately but at the latest 14 days after collection, in the case of delivery ex works, otherwise after delivery. The customer shall give us notice of hidden material defects immediately after they are detected but at the latest within the warranty period according to clause 9.6. A notice of defects that fails to comply with requirements of time shall exclude any claim by the customer for breach of duty due to material defects. This shall not apply in the case of an intentional or fraudulent act by us, the assumption of a guarantee for the absence of defects by us or in the case of liability according to the Produkthaftungsgesetz [German Product Liability Act].
- 9.2 Notice of defects according to clause 9.1 shall be given in writing. A notice of defects which is not in due form shall also exclude any claim by the customer for defects.
- 9.3 The transport operator must also be notified of any material defects recognisable on delivery, and the recording of the defects shall be arranged by the transport operator. Notices of defects must include a description of the defect. Failure to give notice of defects in due time shall exclude any claim by the customer for breach of duty due to defects. This shall not apply in the case of an intentional or fraudulent act by us, in the event of injury to life, limb or health, or the assumption of a guarantee for the absence of defects, or liability according to the Produkthaftungsgesetz.
- 9.4 Once processing, treating, combining or mixing with other goods has begun, the products delivered, in the case of recognisable material defects, shall be deemed approved by the customer according to the contract. This shall apply if the products are shipped onward from their original destination. Before any of the above activities begin, the customer shall be responsible for clarifying, through appropriate checks in terms of scope and method, whether the delivered products are suitable for the processing purposes, process purposes and other purposes intended by the customer.
- 9.5 The customer must give notice in writing immediately of other breach of duty, setting a reasonable time limit for remedy, before asserting further rights.
- 9.6 If, by way of exception, breach of duty does not relate to the performance of work by us, the contract may not be rescinded if our breach of duty is negligible.
- 9.7 We shall provide a warranty for material defects for a period of one (1) year, calculated from the date on which the risk passes (see clause 7). This shall not apply if we are guilty of malice, intent or gross negligence and in the cases pursuant to the following section 12.1 (a) - (h). The limitation period in the event of a delivery recourse according to §§ 445a, 445b BGB remains unaffected.

General Terms and Conditions of Delivery and Service of VeRotool Technik GmbH

- 9.8 Further claims by the customer for or in connection with defects or consequential damage caused by a defect, for whatever reason, shall exist only subject to the provisions of clause 12 unless these are damage claims resulting from a guarantee which is intended to cover the customer against the risk of any defects. In this case too, however, we shall be liable only for typical and foreseeable damage.
- 9.9 If the customer or a third party makes an incorrect rectification, unauthorised changes are made to the products, parts are exchanged or consumables used which do not comply with the specifications or our operating or maintenance instructions are not complied with, we shall not be liable for the resulting consequences. This shall not apply, however, if the warranty claim cannot be proved to be due to one of the above-mentioned reasons for exclusion.
- 9.10 Our warranty and liability arising therefrom shall also be excluded if defects and damages connected therewith cannot be proved to be due to defective material or to defective execution or defective instructions on use. Warranty and liability arising therefrom shall in particular be excluded with respect to the consequences of incorrect use, excessive use or inappropriate storage conditions, for example the consequences of chemical, electromagnetic, mechanical or electrolytic influences that do not correspond with the intended average standard influences. This shall not apply in the case of fraudulent or intentional conduct by us, or injury to life, limb or health, or liability according to the Produkthaftungsgesetz.
- 9.11 Claims based on defects shall not exist in the case of only a negligible deviation from the agreed or customary condition or usefulness.
- 9.12 Recognition of breach of duty, in particular in the form of material defects, shall only be valid when given in writing.
- 10. Prices / Payment terms / Objection of uncertainty
- 10.1 All our prices are in principle quoted in EUROS and exclude packaging, freight and value added tax at the legally valid rate which shall be borne by the customer. Prices and additional charges shall be determined by our general price list, valid at the time the contract is concluded, unless otherwise agreed.
- 10.2 We are entitled, at our reasonable discretion (§ 315 BGB), to unilaterally increase the prices for our deliveries and services in the event of an increase in manufacturing, material and/or procurement costs, wage and ancillary wage costs, social security contributions as well as energy costs and costs due to statutory requirements, environmental regulations, currency regulations, customs changes and/or other public charges if these directly or indirectly influence the costs of our contractually agreed deliveries and services and increase them by more than 5% and if there are more than 4 months between the conclusion of the contract and delivery/service. An increase in the aforementioned sense shall be excluded if the cost increase for individual or all of the aforementioned factors is offset by a cost reduction for other of the aforementioned factors in relation to the total cost burden for the delivery/service (cost netting). If the aforementioned cost factors are reduced without the cost reduction being offset by an increase in other of the aforementioned cost factors, the cost reduction shall be passed on to the customer in the form of a price reduction. If the new price is 20% or more above the original price due to our aforementioned right to adjust prices, the customer shall be - entitled to withdraw from contracts not yet fully performed with regard to the part of the contract not yet performed. However, he may only assert this right immediately after notification of the increased remuneration.
- 10.3 Unless otherwise agreed, the customer shall be in default of payment within 31 days of delivery for lack of payment, even without a reminder.
- 10.4 Once in default, default interest shall be charged of 9 percentage-points above the respective applicable base interest rate when the claim for payment falls due. We reserve the right to assert damage in excess of this.
- 10.5 The date payment is received by us or credited to our account shall be deemed the payment date.
- 10.6 The customer's default in payment shall cause all claims for payment under the business relationship with the customer to become due immediately. Regardless of any agreements to defer payments or agreements on payment by instalment, in this case all the customer's liabilities due to us shall become payable immediately.
- 10.7 If payment terms are not met or circumstances known or recognisable that, in our proper commercial judgement, give rise to justified doubt as to the customer's creditworthiness, also including such facts that already existed when the contract was concluded but which were unknown to us or did not have to be known to us, we shall have the right, notwithstanding further statutory rights in such cases, to cease further work on current orders or the delivery, and to request advance payments or the provision of securities which are acceptable to us for deliveries still outstanding, and, after expiry of a reasonable extension period to provide such securities without result, to rescind the contract, irrespective of other statutory rights. The customer shall be obliged to reimburse us for all damages incurred by failure to fulfil the contract.
- 10.8 The customer shall have a right of retention or right of set-off only with respect to those counter-claims that are not disputed or have been recognised by declaratory judgment.
- 10.9 The customer can only exercise a right of retention if its counter-claim relates to the same contractual relationship.
- 11. Retention of title
- 11.1 We retain title to all goods we deliver (hereinafter referred to as a "goods subject to retention of title") until all our claims under the business relationship with the customer, including claims arising in the future from contracts concluded at a later date, are paid. This shall also apply to any balance in our favour if any or all claims are incorporated by us in a current account and the balance has been established.
- 11.2 The customer shall insure goods subject to retention of title adequately, in particular against fire and theft. Claims against the insurance arising from a case of damage relating to goods subject to retention of title are herewith already assigned to us in the value of the goods subject to retention of title.
- 11.3 The customer shall have the right to resell the delivered products in the normal course of business. The customer is not permitted to make other disposals, especially pledging or granting of equitable lien. If the goods subject to retention of title are not paid for immediately by a third-party purchas-

- er when resold, the customer shall be obliged to resell under retention of title only.
- The right to resell goods subject to retention of title shall cease to apply at once if the customer suspends its payment or defaults in payment to us.
- 11.4 The customer already herewith assigns to us all claims including securities and ancillary rights that accrue to the customer against the end user or third parties from or in connection with the resale of goods subject to retention of title. The customer may not reach an agreement with its purchasers that excludes or impairs our rights in any way or nullifies the assignment of the claim in advance. If goods subject to retention of title are sold with other items, the claim against the third-party purchaser in the amount of the delivery price agreed between ourselves and the customer shall be deemed assigned unless the amounts applicable to the individual goods can be determined from the invoice.
- 11.5 The customer shall have the right to collect claims assigned to us until revoked by us, this revocation being admissible at any time. At our request, the customer shall be obliged to give us the information and documents in full required to collect assigned claims and, unless we do so ourselves, notify its purchasers immediately of the assignment to us.
- 11.6 If the customer incorporates claims from the resale of goods subject to retention of title in a current account relationship with its purchasers, the customer shall already now assign to us any recognised closing balance resulting in its favour in the amount which corresponds to the total amount of the claim from the resale of our goods subject to retention of title, such claim being transferred to the current account relationship.
- 11.7 The customer must notify us immediately if the customer has already assigned claims to third parties arising from the resale of products delivered or to be delivered by us, especially due to real or unreal factoring, or made other agreements which can impair our current or future security interests according to this clause 11.
- In the case of unreal factoring, we shall have the right to rescind the contract and request the products already delivered to be surrendered. This shall also apply to real factoring if, according to the contract with the factor, the customer cannot freely dispose of the purchase price of the claim.
- 11.8 In the event of conduct in breach of the contract through the customer's fault, especially in the case of default in payment, we shall have the right, without previously having to rescind the contract, to take back all goods subject to retention of title. The customer shall be obliged in this case to surrender the goods subject to retention of title at once. We may at any time during normal business hours enter the customer's business premises to determine the stock of the goods delivered by us. Taking back the goods subject to retention of title shall only involve rescinding the contract if we expressly state this in writing or this is prescribed by compulsory statutory provisions. The customer shall notify us immediately in writing of any third-party attachment of goods subject to retention of title or any claim assigned to us.
- 11.9 If the total value of the securities existing for us according to the foregoing provisions exceeds the secured claims by more than 10%, we shall be obliged, at the customer's request, to release securities at our discretion.
- 11.10 We treat and process goods subject to retention of title as manufacturer within the meaning of Section 950 BGB but without obligation on our part. If goods subject to retention of title are processed or connected inseparably with other items that do not belong to us, we shall acquire co-ownership in the new item in the ratio of the invoice amount for our goods to the invoice amounts for the other processed or connected items. If our goods are connected with other movable items into a uniform item that is deemed the principal item, the customer shall now already assign co-ownership thereof to us in the same ratio. The customer shall maintain ownership or co-ownership free of charge on our behalf. Rights of co-ownership accordingly arising shall be deemed goods subject to retention of title. The customer shall be obliged at any time at our request to provide us with the information required to assert our ownership or co-ownership rights.
- 12. Liability / Exclusion and limitation of liability
- 12.1 We shall be liable in principle only for intent and gross negligence by us and our legal representatives and vicarious agents. Our liability and that of our legal representatives and vicarious agents for slight negligence shall, therefore, be excluded except in the following cases:
- (a) breach of material contractual obligations;
 - (b) if, in the event of breach of obligations within the meaning of Section 241 (2) BGB, it is no longer reasonable to expect the customer to accept our performance;
 - (c) in the event of injury to life, limb and health;
 - (d) where a guarantee for the quality of performance, the existence of successful performance, or a procurement risk has been assumed;
 - (e) fraudulent intent;
 - (f) initial impossibility;
 - (g) claims under the Produkthaftungsgesetz; or
 - (h) other cases of liability prescribed by law.
- "Material contractual obligations" are obligations that protect the legal positions of the customer which are material to the contract and which have to be granted to the customer under the contract in terms of subject matter and purpose. Material contractual obligations are also contractual obligations, the fulfilment of which makes the due implementation of the contract at all possible in the first place, and where the customer regularly relies on and may rely on compliance with such obligations.
- 12.2 We shall be liable only for typical and foreseeable damage unless we can be reproached for intentional breach of duty or a case of injury to life, limb and health or other cases of liability prescribed by law.
- 12.3 Liability for indirect damages and consequential damages caused by a defect shall be excluded unless we have violated a material contractual obligation or we, our executives or vicarious agents are reproached for intentional or grossly negligent breach of duty or there is a case of injury to life, limb or health.
- 12.4 Liability for damages other than the liability stipulated in the above paragraphs shall be excluded without regard for the legal nature of the asserted claim. This shall apply in particular to damage claims arising from fault when concluding a contract, due to other breach of duty or due to claims in tort for compensation in respect of property damages according to Section 823 BGB.

General Terms and Conditions of Delivery and Service of VeRotool Technik GmbH

- 12.5 Exclusion resp. limitation of liability according to the foregoing paragraphs 12.1 to 12.3 shall apply to the same extent for the benefit of our executives and non-executive employees and other vicarious agents as well as our sub-contractors.
- 12.6 Claims by the customer for damages arising from this contractual relationship may only be asserted within a preclusion period of one (1) year as of commencement of the statutory limitation period. This shall not apply if we are guilty of malice, intent or gross negligence and in the cases pursuant to section 11.1 (a) - (h). The limitation period in the case of a delivery recourse according to §§ 445a, 445b BGB remains unaffected.
- 12.7 There is no connection between the reversal of the burden of proof and the foregoing provisions.
- 13. Export control / Intra-Community trade
- 13.1 In the absence of other written agreement, the delivered product is intended at all times to remain and to be used and sold in the first country of delivery agreed with the customer.
- 13.2 The export of certain goods may be subject to authorisation e.g. because of their nature or intended purpose or final destination. This applies in particular to so-called dual-use goods. The customer itself shall be obliged to comply strictly with the relevant export regulations and embargos for these goods (products, goods, software, technology), especially of the European Union (EU), Germany resp. of other EU Member States and, if applicable, the USA.
- 13.3 The customer undertakes to send us immediately on request but at the latest within 10 days the original relevant end-use certificates in the form prescribed by the Bundesamt für Wirtschaft und Abfuhrkontrolle [Federal Office of Economics and Export Control].
- 13.4 The customer confirms the correctness of its VAT ID no. which the customer shall give us without being asked to do so immediately after the contract is concluded. The customer undertakes to notify us and its competent domestic tax authority of any change in its name, address, company name and VAT ID no. immediately. If a delivery is regarded as subject to tax due to errors in specifying the name, company name, address or VAT ID no., the customer shall refund the tax to be paid by us as a result.
- 14. Third-party property rights
- 14.1 We shall only be obliged to supply the products free of third-party rights or claims which are based on industrial property rights or other intellectual property, and which we were aware of when the contract was concluded, or were not aware of as a result of gross negligence, provided that the right or claim is based on industrial property rights or other intellectual property
- (a) according to the law of the Federal Republic of Germany, if our customer has its registered office or branch there; or
- (b) according to the law of a foreign state, if the customer has its registered office or branch there; or
- (c) according to the law of a third country only if we have expressly agreed in writing the use or sale of our products in that third country with the customer.
- 14.2 This shall not affect our liability according to clause 12.
- 15. Confidentiality / Data protection
- 15.1 The customer undertakes to keep confidential such facts, documents and knowledge of which the customer becomes aware in the course of performing the business relations with us, and which contain technical, financial, business or market-related information about our company, if we have specified that the respective information must be kept confidential or we have an obvious interest in its confidentiality (hereinafter collectively referred to as confidential information). The customer shall use the confidential information solely for the purpose of implementing and performing the contractual relationship with ourselves in accordance with the contract and the individual contracts based on this.
- 15.2 Disclosure of confidential information to third parties by the customer shall require our express and prior written consent.
- 15.3 There shall be no obligation to maintain confidentiality according to paragraph 15.1 above if it is proved that the respective confidential information:
- (a) is state of the art in the public domain or this information becomes state of the art without any action by the customer; or
- (b) was already known to the customer or is disclosed by a third party authorised to do so; or
- (c) is developed by the customer without any action by us and without exploitation of other information or knowledge acquired through the contractual contact; or
- (d) must be disclosed due to obligatory statutory provisions or orders by a court or official authority.
- 15.4 With regard to the customer's personal data, we shall comply with the relevant statutory provisions, in particular the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). Personal data of the customer will be collected, stored, processed and used by us if, to the extent and for as long as this is necessary for the establishment, performance or termination of the contract with the customer. Any further collection, storage, processing and use of the customer's personal data will only take place if required or permitted by law or if the customer has consented thereto. The customer is aware that the collection, processing and use of the contact data of the customer's contact persons (name, e-mail addresses, etc.) is necessary on the basis of Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. b) GDPR in order to carry out pre-contractual measures and fulfil the contract with the customer. In particular, we are entitled to transfer the data to third parties if and insofar as this is necessary for the implementation of pre-contractual measures and fulfilment of the contract (e.g. for delivery, invoicing or customer care) in accordance with Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. b) GDPR or fulfilment of a legal obligation in the sense of Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. c) GDPR. Furthermore, we may also forward this data to third parties (e.g. debt collection companies) for the purpose of enforcing claims in accordance with Art. 6 Para. 1 lit. b) and/or f) GDPR. In addition, our data protection declaration applies, which can be viewed and printed out at <https://www.verotool.de/datenschutz/>.
- 16. Place of performance / Place of jurisdiction / Applicable law
- 16.1 Place of performance for all contractual obligations is our company's registered office except where an obligation to be performed at the place of business of the creditor is assumed.

- 16.2 All disputes shall be settled, if legally admissible, exclusively before a court of law which is competent for our company's registered office. We also have the right, however, to bring an action against the customer at its place of general jurisdiction.
- 16.3 All legal relations between the customer and ourselves shall be governed exclusively by the law of the Federal Republic of Germany, in particular to the exclusion of the UN Sales Convention (CSIG).
